

8th Grade Short Story Quiz

Name _____

1. _____ the overall feeling created by characters and setting.
2. _____ the characteristic way an author uses language, sentences and imagery.
3. The _____ is the universal truth that the author is trying to convey.
4. The _____ of the story is the author's attitude toward it.
5. A figure of speech where the speaker says less than what she/he feels is _____.
6. The _____ is the central character of the story.
7. When communicating information about characters through their speech and actions, we call this _____.
8. _____ is when the reader knows the unexpected before the characters.
9. _____ is an exaggerated statement usually causing a humorous effect.
10. The use of details to describe one thing in terms of another is called _____.
11. A writing technique used to give the reader clues about upcoming events is called _____.
12. Name three types of conflicts: 1) _____
2) _____ 3) _____.
13. The time and place of a story is the _____.
14. _____ point of view is all knowing.
15. _____ point of view is with only one person.
16. Label the following plot line then list the labels and briefly define them.

